

I am a Technician Class Amateur operator. I completely agree with this petition.

The requirement for proficiency of the Morse code would be the same as requiring a typing speed test since keyboards are used for packet.

I also agree with RM-10784 in the spirit of that a Technician class operator should have to upgrade to General in to gain access to the amateur bands under 30 MHz.